3.0 QUALIFICATION FOR ACCEPTANCE

- 3.1 Applicants must be Malaysian citizens or permanent residents in Malaysia who possess architectural qualifications. In the case of the latter, evidence must be submitted.
- 3.2 Foreign applicants intending to obtain Part I and/or Part II Examination recognition may also apply subject to existing conditions imposed by the Board.
- 3.3 An architectural graduate with qualification which is not in the Board's list of recognised programmes shall be required to appear for the Part I and/or Part II Examination conducted by the Examination Council.

4.0 THE EXAMINATION

- 4.1 The Examination is conducted by the Examination Council pursuant to Section 4(1)(ga) of the Architects Act 1967.

- 4.2 The Examination Council may appoint an Examination Panel consisting of such members from among registered Professional Architects and other qualified persons, to assist in conducting the Part I and/or Part II Examination.
- 4.3 The Examination is conducted in the following manner:
- Stage 1 - Review of school syllabus, course content and academic transcripts.
- Stage 2 - Review of candidate's course work portfolio and Oral Examination
- Stage 3 - Integrated Design Project (IDP) if required, upon failing Stage 2.
(Refer to paragraph 4.6)
- 4.4 A candidate who fails to meet the minimum requirement at Stage 1 stipulated shall not be allowed to proceed with the Examination.
- 4.5 A candidate who passes the Stage 1 and Stage 2 Examination is deemed to have passed the Part I and/or Part II Examination.
- 4.6 A candidate who is unsuccessful at Stage 2 is deemed not to have fully satisfied the requirements of the Examination and shall be required to appear for the Stage 3 Examination.
- 4.7 A candidate who has successfully completed the Stage 3 Examination is deemed to have passed the Part I and/or Part II Examination.
- 4.8 A candidate who is unsuccessful at the Stage 3 Examination may apply to resit the Examination up to a maximum of three (3) times. The candidate may apply to resit the Examination by submitting evidence of two (2) years working experience with architectural firm.
